MAARCORA

THE ARMA COLLECTION

MAARCORA is a Latvian creative atelier dedicated to sculptural furniture and collectible design. The ARMA Collection explores the relationship between sculptural expression, functionality and contemporary craftsmanship.

Each piece is individually handcrafted in Latvia, combining distinctive forms, carefully selected materials and refined finishes. Created to bring together visual presence and everyday comfort, ARMA reflects a considered approach to design, where aesthetics and functionality exist in balance.

Designed for private residences, luxury hospitality and architectural interiors, the ARMA Collection introduces sculptural seating that brings character, individuality and a distinctive presence to any space.

A Place to Pause

Derived from the Latin word arma, symbolising strength and protection, ARMA explores the relationship between sculptural form and inner calm. Its expressive silhouette creates a sense of shelter and security, offering a place to pause, regain balance and withdraw from the outside world. A sculptural presence where strength transforms into stillness.

ARMA

From Strength to Stillness.

ARMA is individually handcrafted in Latvia, bringing together sculptural expression, carefully selected materials and refined finishing techniques to create a distinctive contemporary seating piece.

Its enveloping silhouette and carefully balanced proportions evoke a sense of protection and tranquillity, inviting moments of pause and reflection. Combining sculptural presence with everyday comfort, ARMA becomes a distinctive focal point within residential, hospitality and curated interior environments.
